REPORTS

PRESIDENT: Ed attended the SYSL meeting with Chava. Metro registration was extended to June 15. The U10 maximum roster is 13 players with 8 on the field. Mandatory Head Coaches meeting on July 15. The city of Davis joined the SYSL's Metro program. Dixon is hosting the F Clinic on August 13-14. The next SYSL meeting will be in West Sacramento, we have to turn in our field usage then.

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT: Imelda had nothing to report.

REGISTRAR: Desiree was excused.

TREASURER: Natalie was excused.

SECRETARY: Brenda had nothing to report.

HEAD COACH: Jesus reported that they were too late to register for the U23 league, the registration was already closed.

HEAD REFEREE: Chava reported that he got the check issue dealt with, regarding the person from Davis not getting their check back, because they were not part of SYSL. There have been quite a few kids calling from other cities to referee in Dixon.

SNACK BAR: Allan was excused.

FIELD AND EQUIPMENT: Jason reported that if he doesn't hear back from the Catholic charities he is going to get rid of the old soccer balls. He is going to get with Affordable Automotive soon to get the goals fixed. He is going to go this weekend and check on the status of the equipment that we have. We need to order balls, nets, flags and possibly cones.

PUBLIC RELATIONS: Teresa was excused.

METRO: Martin had nothing to report.

NEW BUSINESS

Draft Night- We will send out email to all the coaches to remind them.

Opening Day- Imelda is in charge of this event. She is going to put a committee together to cover the activities.

Metro- We will Renan take care of buying his own labels for his team.

F Clinic- There have only been 2 people registered so far. They will make sign up sheets and have them available for draft nights.

GOOD OF THE GAME

Good luck to all the teams in the World Cup.
